

Application for Admission

2010 Enrollment

Spring (January) Enrollment Deadline: December 1, 2009

Transfer applicants only

Fall (August) Enrollment Deadline: March 1, 2010

I am applying for: First-Year Admission Transfer Admission

Which major are you applying to? _____ Business Administration
_____ Computer Science
_____ Information Systems

You may apply for more than one major by indicating your preference with 1 being your first choice, 2 your second choice, and 3 your third choice. If applying for only one major, please put a 1 next to the major you are applying for.

Please make sure you are truly interested in each major you apply for, as we are not always able to offer a student his or her first choice. In some cases, a student may be admitted to more than one major and in these cases the student will be able to choose which major to enroll in.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please write a statement (500 – 1,000 words) on one of the topics listed below. This required Personal Statement helps us become better acquainted with you in ways different from courses, grades, test scores, and other objective data. The Personal Statement will demonstrate your ability to organize thoughts and to express yourself clearly. We are looking for a statement that will help us know you better as a person and as a student. Please attach your personal statement to the application. Be sure to include your full name on each page.

1. Why do you want to study business administration?
2. Why do you want to study computer science?
3. Why do you want to study information systems?
4. What distinguishes you as a unique candidate for admission to Carnegie Mellon University?
5. What will you bring to the Carnegie Mellon student body and why will this be important to the other students here?
6. Discuss an issue of personal, local, national, or international concern and explain why it is important to you.

FINANCIAL AID

Do you plan to apply for financial aid from Qatar Foundation? Yes No

Students seeking financial aid must apply for assistance directly from the Qatar Foundation. The Qatar Foundation awards need-based aid to admitted students using a procedure similar to the need-based financial aid analysis used by Carnegie Mellon in the United States. Need-based loans of up to 100% of tuition and fees are available to students regardless of nationality, race, religion, age, or gender. Qatari citizens who enroll at Carnegie Mellon University in Qatar will be fully sponsored by the Supreme Education Council or by a national company. All students are evaluated for admission to Carnegie Mellon without any consideration or knowledge of their ability to pay the tuition and fees. This principle is known as “need-blind” admission.
